Late morning sounds good. BTW, I got from Paul Hruz his classic takedown of the p.10 AAP letter slogan that randomized controlled trials may be unethical in GAT.

"It is often argued that conducting randomized controlled trials in the field of gender medicine would be unethical. This is based upon the false premise that the control group would receive no specific therapy. However, in scientific investigation all variables except the independent variable being tested are kept constant in both experimental and control groups. Thus, although members of the control group do not receive the intervention being studied, they are provided with all other aspects of treatment indicated for the condition; that is, they receive standard care. There are numerous means of psychological support for anxiety, depression, and other comorbidities associated with gender dysphoria. Coping skills can be developed in both treatment arms."

Got it. Thanks. We can discuss tomorrow. I got a conference room at the Agency for us if you want to come over before we head out to the hearing.

Come at your leisure. Perhaps mid to late morning? We'll be heading over the hearing in the same vehicle (rental van) around 2:20.

Here is my rebuttal of the AAP statement. Yellow highlights and usually embedded comments. I'm doing this from inside a plane on the tarmac using my iPhone hot spot, so I hope it works. :)

Hi Jason

Thanks for forwarding. I skimmed through and don't see any surprises. Please refer audience questions about standards of care to the other docs who are more articulate on this subject than I.
